SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE.

1. [redacted] a jamming station, built during 1954 or 1955, was located 150 to 200 meters east of the highway running from Plovdiv to Yagodovo Village, N 42-07, E 24-51, in Plovdiv Okoliya. (See Overlay No. 1) Since the station itself was located in a low area, only the sentry house, which lay on a rise close to the station, was easily visible from the highway. A dirt road lead from the highway to the station with a power line paralleling the road. The station was strictly guarded by the militia and approach to the area was prohibited. 50X1-HUM

2. [redacted]

3. [redacted] all the inhabitants of Yagodovo Village knew this was a jamming station. 50X1-HUM
